The enrollment for the day reached 62, which is only a small per cent. as yet of the teachers of the county.

The appointment of committees was the ne wirder of business. The programs J. mittee consisted of James A. Hays, Miss Kate Bogle, W. B. Hubble, Prof. Davis and Prof. Ireland, chairman. Committee on resolutions: Miss Georgia Lewis, W. T. White, Leslie Anderson and Mrs. H. D. Phillips, chairman. Miss Stella McClary was appointed secretary. No other business for the morning and the institute was adjourned until 1:30 P. M.

The Monday afternoon session was opened with music by the institute, led by Prof. Ireland with Miss Frances Adams presiding at the organ.

Roll call by the secretary. The subject of School Government was introduced and ably discussed by our instructor, followed by Prof. W. T. White, who gave us practical help by his words in showing us that he fully succeeded along the line of personal school government. Prof. W. B. Hubble gave us the necessary "rules and regulations" in securing a good governed school, and especially dwelling on the fact that the fewer the rules the better the school. General discussion on the Conducting of a Successful Recatation by the institute. Miss Fulsome McGuire spoke in the interest of the Southern School Journal and other educational papers, followed by Mr. S. C. Stevens, of Lexington, in the interest of other educational publications.

After recess Prof. Ireland gave us all know, is his strong point and most freshing in their tired moments. perfect accomplishment. Come and let him charm you with his magnificent voice. #### The State University, Lexington, Ky.

The State University, Lexington, Ky., offers the following courses, namely, Agricultural, Mechanical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mining Engineering, Classical and seven Scientific courses each of which extends over four years and leads to a Bachelor's degree; also a Department of Law and a Department of Education, which last has been established instead of the Normal School. Persons who enter this department prepare for advanced work in pedagogy and are granted a Bachelor's degree in this subject when completed. The Academy for preparatory instruction is retained.

ellor's degree in this subject when completed. The Academy for preparatory instruction is retained.

County appointees recieve free tuition, privilege of residence in the dormitories, fuel and light, traveling expenses, if they remain ten consecutive months, or one collegiate year.

The laboratories and museum are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern. Military Science is fully provided for as required by Congress.

The graduates in the several courses of study readily find employment with liberal remuneration. The total number of matriculates for last year was 1678. Each department has a specialist at its head, with the necessary number of assistants.

Young women find an excellent home, with board and lodging, in Patterson Hall, which is well equipped with all the modern conveniences, bathroom, hall for physical culture, at $3.00 per week. All courses of study in the University are open to women on identical conditions with those applying to males.

The completion of the Agricultural, Mining Engineering Laboratory and Education buildings afford ample and commodious quarters for these departments, which are rapidly increasing in the number of matriculates.

Chester Peavine 3184,

A. S. H. R.

In offering the service of this young stallion to the public I do not hesitate to say he is the best bred saddle stallion that will be offered for service in this county this year, as his breeding will show. Sired by Rex Peavine 1796, he by Rex McDonaid SE. Ist dam Miss Madison 4695, she by Chester Dare. 2nd dam by Peavine 85, more extended pedigree will be furnished on application. This stallion has the best blood of the saddle horse world in him. Both 2nd dams by Peavine 85, crosses twice to Black Squirrel, twice to Stonewall Jackson, once to Dave Akin 775. With the style and finish of Chester Dare, the stamina and action of Peavine, how can he breed wrong. His sire, Rex Peavine, produced three championship winners of last year in Edna Mae, Mattie Bales and May Day. See and breed to him if you want the best. Will serve a limited number of mares at $5 to insure a living colt.

At the same time and place will stand three as good mule jacks as can be found in the country at the low price of $8 to insure a living colt.

Money due with all the above advertised the country at the last state of the living colt.

Money due with all the above advertised stock when colt is foaled or when mare leaves hands of owner at time of service, or bred to other stock. All care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur. Grass at reasonable price.
